

I disagree with the NAB proposal. XM radio offering local services does not impact my patronage of local broadcast efforts. I find it hard to believe that XM offering local traffic and weather can impact local broadcasting so drastically as to limit competing organizations to regain any lost market.